PRINT THIS FORM AND BRING TO CLASS.

PRINT NAME: _________________________________________________________________________

FYE instructor_______________________________________________________________________

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

PART 1

1. Go to www.lib.uconn.edu
2. Click on Research Databases
3. Click By Database Name
4. Enter: CQ RESEARCHER
5. Click on a “Hot Topic” and report the following:

   Hot Topic: __________________________________________________________________________

   When was it published: ______________________________________________________________

   Who is the author(s): ________________________________________________________________

   List what would make this a credible site that you would be able to use in a paper?
   __________________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________________

PART 2

1. Go to Google or any other search engine that you generally use to search your “hot topic” and find a site that you would consider using for a paper.

2. Title of the website: __________________________________________________________________

3. Author of the website: __________________________________________________________________

4. What is the URL (web address)
   http://___________________________________________________________________________

5. Why would you consider this a credible site?
   __________________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________________