The UConn Library is the largest public research collection in the state. The website is available at lib.uconn.edu. ECE Faculty, Library Media Specialists, and students, like all members of the UConn Community, may use databases to search for and download full-text scholarly resources for research needs. Online chat help and email consultations are available at help.lib.uconn.edu. The Library also offers many self-help research tools and guides on the homepage. 150 books is the maximum undergraduate students may borrow from the UConn Library. Interlibrary Services may be used for items we do not have.

To use the library, you must know your NetID and password. Also, ECE students must have set up a UConn Google Mail account at g.uconn.edu

Observations:
- Not all courses assign research papers
- Those that do often ask for multiple books (4-6)
- ECE instructors don’t seem to be relying on articles as sources
ECE COURSES

American Studies

AMST 1201: Seminar in American Studies

Course Description:
Three credits. What is an American? A multi-disciplinary inquiry into the diversity of American societies and cultures.

Semester offered: Fall, Spring or Full-Year

Student Eligibility Guidelines for AMST 1201:
Successful completion of two years of high school history and two years of high school English are recommended.

Instructor Certification Requirements:
The minimum requirement for certification in American Studies is graduate level training in both English and History: Applicants should have at least a Bachelor's Degree in American Studies; however, applicants with a Master's Degree in either English or History will be considered. This course may be team taught between a History and English instructor, where each have at least bachelor and some graduate level training within their respective majors. Individual instructors with significant documented experience in teaching American Studies content may, under certain circumstances, also receive provisional certification within a mentoring program.

Roosevelt Not Responsible

POOR GASSETT

The business men of this city, personally and thru the Commercial Club, assisted by the press, are going to make an earnest, honest and aggressive campaign to have the institution located in Hattiesburg and arrangements are now under way to choose a site to offer the staff for the location of the State Normal School.

Roosevelt Not Responsible

John Wannamaker, of Philadelphia, in the Saturday Evening Post says:

Things are quieting down, the worst of the business depression is passing, the tide has actually turned, and confidence and prosperity will come along gradually.

For the widespread lack of financial confidence from which the country has been suffering I do not hold President Roosevelt to be in any way responsible. It is the result of conditions which he has indeed helped to make known, but of which he has not been in any degree the cause. As he himself has admirably expressed it: If he lights a torch he is not responsible for what the light shows.
